If you were recently released from incarceration, these additional resources will help you find services and programs that you may need.

BE PREPARED!

If you left your ID at the correctional facility, call the Department of Correction Public Information Office at 860-692-7780 to see if you can obtain it. At the end of this guide there is a section on "How to Replace Documents When You Have Lost All Your Identification Cards".

Note that if searching for shelters, some of the shelters and drop-in centers may require medical information, such as proof that you've had a tetanus shot, and a tuberculosis-free test result. These medical records are obtained from the nursing supervisor at the correctional facility. This guide also includes an "Immunization - Adults" section that lists facilities that provide immunizations.

United Way 2-1-1: You can find information about additional resources that are available by using the 2-1-1 online website, or by calling 2-1-1 and talking with a call specialist. The call center is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week! Go to www.211ct.org and follow the directions on the web site to locate the type of service, and then the specific resource you need, or: Dial 2-1-1 directly and talk to one of the call specialists who will assist you. You can also reach them, toll-free, at 1-800-203-1234. They can help you locate a resource, provide referrals and crisis intervention services. The service is free and confidential.

CT Department of Social Services: Benefit assistance may also be available by contacting the Department of Social Services (DSS). To find out about the types of services they provide you can reach them at 855-626-6632 or at <http://www.ct.gov/dss/site/default.asp>.

What if you don't have access to a computer? Most public libraries have computers that are available for public use. They require a library card, but if you don't have one, they will issue you a temporary library card if you can show a picture ID or proof of address. If you have no ID, and if you are staying at a shelter, the library can give you a form to be filled out at the shelter.

What if you don't have access to a phone? You can apply for a free cell phone through the SafeLink Wireless Assistance program, 800-977-3768. This online web site lists those who qualify for the program: <https://www.safelinkwireless.com/Enrollment/Safelink/en/Public/NewHome.html> or call 2-1-1 for other free phone services for Connecticut residents.

HOW TO REPLACE DOCUMENTS WHEN YOU HAVE LOST ALL OF YOUR IDS

The United Way 2-1-1 on-line web site contains complete information about how to obtain a:

- Birth certificate,
- State issued driver's license or non-driver identification
- Social security card

You can get the information one of the following ways:

Go to www.211ct.org and click on the "eLibrary" box. Then click on "Records, Licenses and Permits". Then click on "Replacing Documents When You Have Lost All Your IDs". This will give you links to the information about birth certificates, state issued licenses and IDs, and social security cards. OR Go to <http://uwc.211ct.org/social-security-cards-documents-required-to-obtain-a-social-security-number-and-card-or-a-replacement-card/> and it will take you directly to "Replacing Documents When You Have Lost All Your IDs". OR If you do not have access to a computer, you may dial 2-1-1 and speak to a call specialist who will assist you.

Birth Certificates: If you were born in the State of Connecticut but do not know the town where you were born, you can go to the State of CT Department of Public Health with identification; give them your name at birth and date of birth. The DPH will search for a record and if found, can issue the certificate while you wait. The fee is $30. The web site is www.ct.gov/dph. The address is: Department of Public Health, 410 Capitol Avenue, Hartford, CT 06134; 1st Floor Department of Vital Records - (860)509-5690.
