

COVID-19 AND INCARCERATION: AN INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVE ON CHALLENGES AND SOLUTIONS

JULY 8TH, 2020, 9 - 11:30 AM EDT

Moderators: Lisa Puglisi, MD, and Emily Wang, MD, MAS, Yale School of Medicine

9:00 - 9:15 AM - Introduction, Doug Dretke, Executive Director, Correctional Management Institute of Texas

9:15 - 9:30 AM - Modeling Reopening During COVID-19: When Can Visits Restart?, Professor Andrew Lloyd, Program Head, Kirby Institute, University of New South Wales

9:30 - 9:35 AM - Questions

9:35 - 9:50 AM - Testing as Surveillance: Monitoring Waste Water for SARS-CoV-2, Annette Chambers-Smith, Director, Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections

9:50 - 9:55 AM - Questions

9:55 - 10:10 AM - Decontamination to Prevent Outbreaks: the Hong Kong Experience with Fogging, Jacky Lee and Eric Cheung, Superintendents, Hong Kong Correctional Services Department

10:10 - 10:15 AM - Questions

10:15 - 10:30 AM - Medication Mobile Application, Dr. Kelly Collins and Dr. Richard Garfien, Executive Officers, SureAdhere

10:30 - 10:35 AM - Questions

10:35 - 10:50 AM - Strategies to Decrease COVID-19 Transmission in Large Facilities: Modeling the Impact of Large Scale Release Giovanni Malloy, PhD Candidate, Stanford University

10:50 - 10:55 AM - Questions

10:55 - 11:10 AM - Modular Systems, Steve Carter, Executive Vice President, CGL

11:10 - 11:30 AM - Questions