

Northwestern Connecticut Re-Entry Council Resource Guide

Updated September 2021

Torrington, CT 06790

WHO WE ARE

The NW Re-Entry Council is one of the Connecticut Re-Entry Collaborative.

We are community members working together to provide resources for individuals returning to the community after incarceration. We are looking to re-establish lives through providing pathways to holistic, successful reintegration.

Our aim is to provide assistance with:

- Transportation
- Education
- Employment
- Housing
- Access to healthcare
- Identification / document procurement

This Community Resource Guide is constantly being updated. If you know of any information that should be included, corrected, deleted or in some way mode modified, please contact:

Getting Documents Notarized

Getting a document notarized means taking it to a notary public. A notary public is legally authorized to witness signatures and certify that a document is valid.

There are several notaries in the Torrington area, including:

Torrington City Clerk

140 Main St.

Torrington, CT 06790

860-489-2236

Monday to Wednesday: 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Thursday: 8:300 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Friday: 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The UPS Store

220 Albany Turnpike

Canton, CT 06019

860-693-9633

Monday to Friday: 8:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Saturday: 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Sunday: Closed

The notary is in and out during the day, so call ahead. **

To have a document notarized, you must bring two pieces of ID, at least one of which should have your photograph. You should bring your DOC discharge papers and any other documents you have, such as:

- a utility bill (gas, electric, water)
- a cell phone bill
- any mail addressed to you

- a letter from your parole officer or probation officer
- a pay stub or a letter from your employer
- Social Security card, health insurance card, or DSS card
- your lease or rental agreement
- a letter from a shelter where you're staying

Call ahead to ask the notary what documents he or she accepts.

If you don't have ID, you can also prove your identity to the notary with a "credible witness," someone who knows both you and the notary. Call ahead to ask the notary for help finding a "credible witness."

Getting a Birth Certificate

A few states treat birth certificates as public records. But most states require some ID to get a copy of your birth certificate.

If you have little or no ID, the best approach is usually to ask a parent, spouse, child, or other relative with standard ID to apply on your behalf, ideally before your release from prison.

Some states accept Department of Corrections discharge papers as ID to obtain a birth certificate, either by policy or by informal practice. You should call ahead to confirm whether the office will accept your DOC discharge papers as ID.

Procedures for getting your birth certificate vary from state to state; if you don't have standard ID, your success in getting a copy of your birth certificate may depend on the mood of the staffer you talk to that day. Help from a case manager, mentor or discharge planner may improve your chance of success.

- Bring your DOC discharge papers and any other ID you have.
- Bring $20.00 in cash, or a money order made out to "Vital Statistics."

- Fill out the form “APPLICATION FOR COPY OF BIRTH CERTIFICATE.”

What to do if you don’t have the right kind of ID: If you don’t have any ID, a family member who has photo ID can request a copy of your birth certificate by going to the Vital Statistics Office. Your parents will only need a photo ID. Your spouse will need a photo ID and (if you weren’t married in New London) a copy of your marriage license. Your children will need a photo ID and (if they weren’t born in New London) a copy of their own birth certificate. Your grandparents will need a photo ID and (if your parent wasn’t born in New London) a copy of your parent’s birth certificate (mother or father, whichever is their child).

How long it will take to receive a copy: It depends on the line, but probably around 15 minutes.

Place of Birth: Connecticut Towns

Web: <http://www.ct.gov/dph/cwp/view.asp?a=3132&q=390652>

If you were born in Connecticut, the best way to get a copy of your birth certificate is from the clerk’s office for the town where you were born. Check the list of “Connecticut Town and City Clerks” to find the address and phone number.

<http://www.ct.gov/dph/cwp/view.asp?a=3132&q=388128>

Cost: $15.00 for wallet copy, $20 for full-sized copy

ID needed: A valid, current government-issued photo ID, like:

- Driver’s license
- State issued identification card
- Government issued employment identification
- Passport

If you don’t have a photo ID, you can use two of the following:

- Social Security card
- Written verification of identity from employer

- Car registration
- Copy of utility bill showing name and address
- Checking account deposit slip stating name and address
- Voter registration card

If you are on probation or have completed your sentence, it's simple to register to vote.

Online voter registration is now available in CT. To use the online voter registration system, you must have a current and valid driver's license, learner's permit or non-driver photo identification card issued by the CT Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) and a signature on file with DMV

<https://voterregistration.ct.gov>

If you don't have any of these forms of ID, many clerk's offices will accept DOC discharge papers. Call ahead to check.

Who can get a copy: You, your spouse, your parents, your grandparents, your children (if 18 or older)

If you can, it's better to go in person to the clerk's office for the town or city where you were born. Find the address and phone number of the clerk's office on the list "Connecticut Town and City Clerks" and call ahead for directions. Tell the clerk what forms of ID you have, including your DOC discharge papers, and ask if this is enough to get a copy of your birth certificate. Remember, you can ask your parole or probation officer, your employer, or a social services worker for a letter stating who you are.

If you have the right ID, you should go in person and:

- Bring copies of all your IDs, including your DOC discharge papers
- Bring cash or a money order for $10 made out to the town where you were born. (For example, if you were born in Bridgeport, make it out to "City of Bridgeport.")

- Fill out the form for a copy of your birth certificate.

If you can't go in person, you can mail in your request. Find the address and phone number of the clerk's office for the town or city where you were born and call ahead. Tell the clerk what ID you have, including your DOC discharge papers, and ask if this is enough to get a copy of your birth certificate. Remember, you can ask your parole or probation officer, your employer, or a social services worker for a letter stating who you are.

To mail in a request when you have the right ID, you should:

- Fill out the form "REQUEST FOR COPY OF BIRTH CERTIFICATE"
- Make photocopies of whatever ID you have, including your DOC discharge papers
- Get a money order for $10.00 made out to the town where you were born. (For example, if you were born in Bridgeport, make it out to "City of Bridgeport.")
- Mail the form, the photocopies, and the money order to the address on the list of "Connecticut Town and City Clerks." Call ahead to double-check the address.

What to do if you don't have the right kind of ID: If a family member has a photo ID, they can get a copy of your birth certificate, either in person or by mail. Follow the instructions for mailing in a request above but use your family's ID above. Your parents will only need a copy of their own photo ID. Your spouse will need a copy of their own photo ID and a copy of your marriage license. Your children will need a photo ID and a copy of their own birth certificate. Your grandparents will need a photo ID and a copy of your parent's birth certificate (mother or father, whichever is their child).

How long it will take to receive a copy: If you or a family member goes in person to the clerk's office, you should be able to get your birth certificate that same day. If you or a family member requests a copy by mail, it may take 4-6 weeks.

Place of Birth: Outside Connecticut

Rent and Fuel Assistance

The Sullivan Senior Center is not just a place for recreation. The senior community looks to the Center for help with processing their assistance applications. Energy Assistance, Renters Rebate, Medicare Part D, Medicare Savings Program, Income Tax Assistance and Title XIX. Appropriate referrals are made to social service agencies, such as Protective Services for the Elderly, Legal Services, Financial Counseling, Housing, the Center for Medicare Advocacy, Home Care and Health Services and the Community Health and Wellness Center of Greater Torrington. Notary services are available.

Renters Tax Relief Program

Renters receive direct grants from the State of Connecticut on the assumption that part of their rent goes to cover their landlord's property tax. The filing period is between May 15 and September 15 every year at the Sullivan Senior Center, 88 East Albert Street, and Tuesday thru Thursday from 9:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. by appointment. Call 860-489-2211.

Grants are given to qualifying people who are 65 years of age and over and for people who are totally disabled under the Social Security Disability Act. Renters must have resided in the State for at least one year. Certain government aid or subsidizes, such as monthly cash supplement, a onetime cash supplement or clothing allowance will disqualify a person from the program.

The following documents are required at the time of application:

Proof of annual income including:

- Income tax return, if filed
- All 1099 Forms for Social Security, Pension, Interest, Dividends
- W-2 for Wages
- Utility Company Receipts, Rent Receipts or Canceled Checks

Fuel Assistance Program

This program is designed to help people pay for their winter home heating costs, if they qualify, by directly paying the oil company or utility company for money awarded to their household. If heat is included in a person's rent, the renter must be paying more than 30% of their income for their monthly rent to qualify.

Applications are taken for senior citizens from October 1 through March 15 (thru April 15 for Utility Fuel Assistance) Tuesday through Thursday from 9:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. by appointment. Call 860-489-2211.

Torrington Chore Program for the Elderly

Phone: 1-860-489-2580

What is the Chore Program?

The Torrington Chore Program is a service offered to the frail, at risk and /or low-income elderly (over the age of 60) residents of Torrington and Harwinton. The program is designed to assist people with housekeeping chores.

The Chore Program enables people to remain at home in their community and not be at risk of institutionalization.

It is the responsibility of the elder to provide all cleaning supplies and equipment. A chore worker will be scheduled for two hours per week to assist program participants.

Is There a Fee?

There is no charge for the service, although suggested donations are accepted. The donation is based on the individual's income. The suggested donations range from $8.00 to $17.00 per hour and helps to defray the cost of the program expenses.

LET'S WORK TOGETHER

We believe the community needs all its members, and that all its members can make positive contributions to the community.

Securing full-time, long-term employment and housing are the positive first steps! We need YOU!

Supportive community members and business owners to join us in our mission! We can break down barriers and open doors together!

Your actions may be life changing!

I look forward to working with you!
